

Dr. Kiydra Harris is a Program Director at the Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina Foundation leading efforts focused on expanding access to care by helping build a future where every North Carolinian is connected to, and receives, quality healthcare that allows them to live healthy lives.

Dr. Harris is a visionary leader and changemaker whose career has been dedicated to advancing health equity, leveraging strategic philanthropy, and creating sustainable social impact. She has extensive healthcare experience having served as Program Officer at The Rapides Foundation and Assistant Professor of Pharmacy Practice at Texas Southern University. She earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Florida A&M University and completed two postgraduate residencies in Community Pharmacy Practice at Texas Southern University/San Jose Clinic and in Public Health at Bristol Myers Squibb Foundation/Rutgers University. Kiydra is known for her vibrant spirit, instinctual dot connecting, and love of music and travel.